BAHEP welcomes Brown Leadership Consulting LLC

BAY AREA HOUSTON, TEXAS – A company’s Human Resources Department provides many valuable services, but, due to time, financial and personnel constraints, often it cannot provide services which may positively affect the company’s corporate culture. Brown Leadership Consulting LLC (BLC) helps to fill that gap by offering “Streamlined Approaches for Seamless Results,” a motto utilized by CEO Linda V. Brown, Ph.D., to portray her company’s services to clients.

In welcoming Brown Leadership Consulting LLC as a new member of the Bay Area Houston Economic Partnership, President Bob Mitchell said, “In first meeting Dr. Linda Brown, it soon became evident that her professional expertise, combined with a dynamic, positive personality, are the building blocks that have made Brown Leadership Consulting LLC effective and successful.”

Brown spoke of meeting Mitchell and Membership Director Harriet Pilgrim saying, “Harriet arranged a very productive meeting where we three talked about the services of both of our companies. As a result, BLC is a proud new member of BAHEP. BAHEP is a hub organization where leaders from diverse companies and government operations come together to share talents and participate in ‘Value Added’ opportunities to the communities they serve. I look forward to building a long-term presence and future with BAHEP and its members.”

Corporate culture refers to the shared values, attitudes, standards, and beliefs that characterize members of an organization and define its nature. Corporate culture is rooted in an organization's goals, strategies, structure, and approaches to labor, customers, investors, and the greater community. Brown Leadership Consulting LLC is a firm known for achievement in leadership development, training and educational consulting, executive coaching, and human capital management in both private and public organizations, government agencies, and educational institutions. This work directly affects a company's corporate culture, and its positive ripple effects often extend far beyond the corporate walls.

Dr. Brown services numerous individual and corporate clients utilizing tools such as: DiSC, ISD (Instructional System Development) and SWOT Analysis. She is also creator of the leadership model, "The Chair: How to Connect and Disconnect," which emphasizes a theory in living a more balanced and less stressed life using her 3i's (Internal, Intervention and Innovation) and 3c's (Communication, Collaboration and Cooperation) approach to accomplish "Streamlined Approaches for Seamless Results."

Prior to Brown Leadership Consulting, Dr. Brown's career spanned work as a Subject Matter Expert (SME) in Professional Leadership, as an Executive and Life Coach and Human Capital Trainer, an organization management leader, a state and federal lobbyist, a fundraiser and development executive, a communications specialist, teacher, sports coach, and other administrative positions.

Dr. Brown received her Ph.D. in Leadership from The University of Texas - Austin, a master's degree in Education Administration from Prairie View A&M University, and a Bachelor of Science in Education from Southern University.
