BAHEP welcomes CIVET Real Estate, a commercial brokerage firm

BAY AREA HOUSTON, TEXAS – CIVET Real Estate was formed in Houston, Texas, in 2011 by industry professionals who came together for a common goal: to provide commercial real estate services with integrity and compassion for its clients.

Bay Area Houston Economic Partnership President Bob Mitchell welcomed CIVET Real Estate as new member of BAHEP saying, “Houston has been growing rapidly for many years and will continue this upward growth for years to come. Commercial brokerage firms are essential to this process, and we look forward to working with CIVET in further strengthening the economy of the region.”

Audra Bentley, CIVET Real Estate owner, commented, “BAHEP provides so much useful information to commercial brokers throughout Houston. It’s a very dynamic organization, and we are excited about participating in its worthwhile efforts to provide a safe and secure environment for Houston’s businesses, industries, and families.”

CIVET is a full service brokerage firm offering buying/selling of properties, property management, leasing, tenant representation, investment services, and construction services to building owners and tenants across Texas. The firm's experience includes medical, office, retail, flex, and industrial properties.

CIVET is committed to being a responsive management company that will find ways to help clients maintain attractive and profitable buildings, while supporting their tenants by maintaining a quality property in which to run their businesses.

Bentley concluded, "Whether you need a single building investment or portfolio management, project leasing, tenant representation or other commercial real estate services, CIVET is ready to meet your needs and exceed your expectations. We offer a variety of services to help you with your commercial property needs:

- Leasing and Brokerage
- Landlord Representation
- Tenant Representation
- Property Management
- Construction Services
- Investment Services

"CIVET's corporate office is located at 4265 San Felipe, Suite 1100, Houston, Texas, with a satellite office at 2600 South Shore Blvd., Suite 300, in League City to serve our clients," Bentley said. Please call 713.222.4838 or visit www.civetrealstate.com to learn more.
