Deloitte supports NASA JSC and its contractor community

BAY AREA HOUSTON, TEXAS – Today, the Bay Area Houston Economic Partnership announced that Deloitte has joined as a new member. Because of the area’s prominent role in the space industry and support of NASA, the Bay Area Houston area is an important community for Deloitte. Deloitte provides industry-leading audit, consulting, tax and risk and financial advisory services to many of the world’s most admired brands, including nearly 90% of the Fortune 500® as well as consulting and advisory services to 15 US Cabinet-level departments and 44 states.

BAHEP President Bob Mitchell said, “Deloitte was founded in 1845; so, I doubt if there are many people in the business world who are not familiar with this outstanding organization. We’re looking forward to working with Deloitte and helping to support its growth in the region.”

Bill Bastedo, specialist executive, Deloitte Consulting LLP, with a specific focus on space and will represent Deloitte at BAHEP. He stated, “We are excited about NASA’s challenge to return the moon by 2024 and collaborating with NASA and their contractor community who support its current and future missions. Through our mission systems engineering, data analytics, cyber, financial and IT modernization capabilities, we will continue to grow our space sector in order to enable critical mission work such as operating the International Space Station safely, the incubation of commercialization of low earth orbit and lunar space and the return of Americans safely to the Moon and eventually to land on Mars.

“Additionally, we recognize the vital role that BAHEP performs through its numerous initiatives supporting Bay Area Houston’s communities and industries. In turn, we feel that it is important to support this organization that does so much to support us.”

Deloitte provides industry-leading services in financial, IT, data analytics, human capital, business strategy, and systems engineering. Deloitte is the Gulf Coast's largest professional services organization, employing more than 2,500 professionals supporting all of the region's leading industries including oil and gas, petrochemical, health care, banking, finance, retail, and now aerospace.
