Kemah office of Edward Jones joins BAHEP

BAY AREA HOUSTON, TEXAS – Founded in 1922, Edward Jones serves nearly seven million investors from more offices than any other investment firm in America. One of those branch offices belongs to Edward Jones Financial Advisor Roy Salas who has become a member of the Bay Area Houston Economic Partnership.

Bob Mitchell, BAHEP president, stated, “Financial advisors are indispensable in today’s complicated world of investing with its rules, regulations, and market fluctuations. We welcome Edward Jones’ Roy Salas with his years of experience and commitment to helping others.”

Salas joined Edward Jones in January 2014 after nearly 21 years of active military service in the U.S. Army. He said, “Nearing the end of my military career, I had the opportunity to educate soldiers on basic money management skills, creating a passion for helping others with their financial needs that I still maintain today. BAHEP’s basic mission is to help others, too, and I felt that it would be a great organization to join while working together for the good of the region.”

As a bilingual financial advisor, Salas says that his mission is to impact the lives of the families with whom he works and to deeply understand what is truly important to them by developing individual strategies to help them make those a reality.

Salas’ office is located at 903 FM 518, Suite E, in Kemah, Texas. For additional information, call 832.864.2365, email roy.salas@edwardjones.com, or visit www.edwardjones.com/roy-salas.
