Haute Flowers & Events joins BAHEP

BAY AREA HOUSTON, TEXAS – Haute Flowers & Events provides a full array of planning and production services for clientele in the Houston/Galveston region and has recently become a member of the Bay Area Houston Economic Partnership.

“If you’ve ever attended an event that was orchestrated by Haute Flowers & Events, you are well aware of the exceptional abilities of this talented group. They are a welcome addition to our membership,” said BAHEP President Bob Mitchell.

Teresa Vencil is CEO/President of Haute Flowers & Events, which she founded in 2003. She said, “Haute Flowers & Events and its team members have been recognized for providing service above industry standards for many years. BAHEP is well-known for providing the same level of service, and I look forward to participating in its work.”

Vencil spoke of Haute Flowers & Events services saying, “Our design studio specializes and excels in creating classic and modern floral designs, as well implementing area resources for private, corporate, and celebratory events.

“Our services include floral design, tenting, staging, lighting and event décor. Haute Events is also actively involved in numerous community professional organizations, chambers of commerce, and outreach programs.”

Haute Flowers & Events is located at 655 FM 270 (N. Egret Bay Blvd.), League City, Texas 77573. Call 281.332.1518 or email hffevents@gmail.com for additional information. Its visually stunning website can be found at www.hffevents.com.
