

BAYPORT INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT

- |                              |                                   |                         |  |
|------------------------------|-----------------------------------|-------------------------|--|
| La Porte Industrial District | City Limits                | Houston                 | Texas Rail Road Commission Pipeline Commodity |
| Pasadena Industrial District | La Porte                          | Carbon Dioxide          | Anhydrous Ammonia                                    |
| Rail Road                    | Pasadena                          | Crude Oil               | Empty  |
|                              | Seabrook                          | Hydrogen Gas            | Highly Volatile Liquid                               |
|                              | Shoreacres                        | Liquefied Petroleum Gas | Natural Gas  |
|                              | Taylor Lake Village               | Natural Gas Liquid      | Product  |
|                              | School District Boundaries |                         |  |
|                              | Cleerk Creek                      |                         |  |
|                              | Deer Park                         |                         |  |
|                              | La Porte                          |                         |  |

0 0.5 1 Miles

This map's data has been compiled from many different sources, both public and private and the BAHEP nor LAN cannot guarantee its accuracy, or completeness. Use of the information is the sole responsibility of the user.

The 2010 Aerial Imagery Data is the sole property of Houston-Galveston Area Council, which reserves all rights thereto. Use or reproduction of this data is strictly prohibited absent written consent from the Houston-Galveston Area Council.