C4 Clear Creek Community Charities Inc. joins BAHEP

BAY AREA HOUSTON, TEXAS – C4 Clear Creek Community Charities Inc. is the newest member of the Bay Area Houston Economic Partnership. The company is a 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation whose mission is to produce high quality public events which provide financial support to local non-profit organizations. Funding is provided in part by corporate sponsorships, private contributions, public attendance, in-kind support and volunteer assistance. Its non-profit partners for 2009 are Autism Speaks, Communities in Schools, and Bay Area Pet Adoption Texas.

Bob Mitchell, BAHEP president, stated, “The people in our Bay Area community have always been supportive of the wonderful work of C4 Clear Creek Community Charities Inc., and we hope that they will continue to do so.”

South Shore Dockside Food & Wine Festival is the annual fundraiser for C4 Clear Creek Community Charities. Local businesses, corporations and individuals come together to create this nationally recognized event, which is celebrating its eighth year in 2009.

Steve London of Chase Investment Services Corp. is president and CEO of C4 Clear Creek Community Charities as well. He noted, “BAHEP has long been recognized as the driving force for bringing new businesses to Bay Area Houston. Together we can familiarize these companies with our one-of-a-kind event. As we raise funds for worthwhile projects in the area, we also assist the business community in raising its profile in the area and beyond.”

Other members of C4 Clear Creek Community Charities Inc. include vice presidents Barbara Ward and Jo Ann Armstrong, and board members Roy Green of South Shore Harbour Resort and Conference Center and Rolfe Schaumburger with The Spirivin Group.
