BAHEP welcomes Gilbane Building Company as newest member

BAY AREA HOUSTON, TEXAS – After 137 years of doing business as a privately held, family-operated company, Gilbane Building Company has grown into a national leading commercial general contractor with more than 1,900 employees. It is also the newest member of the Bay Area Houston Economic Partnership.

Bob Mitchell, BAHEP president stated, “Gilbane Building Company’s credentials are impressive and are an excellent example of American entrepreneurship at its best. We look forward to working with Gilbane to further the growth of Bay Area Houston.”

Dan Gilbane serves as Gilbane’s senior business development manager in Houston, where the company has 185 employees. He said, “Throughout our company’s history, we have found that working with good people and forming mutually beneficial relationships within the community have been key elements of our success. BAHEP has been successful, as well, using much the same philosophy. I believe that we will make a good team.”

Gilbane Building Company provides a full slate of facilities-related services for clients in the corporate, developer, government (federal, state and local,) healthcare, education (K-12 and higher,) convention / cultural, mission-critical, sports / recreation, life sciences, transportation, and criminal justice markets. Founded in 1873, Gilbane’s annual revenues now top $3.5 billion.

Dan Gilbane commented, “Our passion, commitment, experience and integrity are a central part of every project we deliver.” For more information about Gilbane Building Company, contact dgilbane@gilbaneco.com, call 713.209.1873 or visit www.gilbaneco.com.
