BAHEP welcomes Banner Quality Management Inc.

BAY AREA HOUSTON, TEXAS – Banner Quality Management Inc. (BQMI) is an Economically Disadvantaged Woman Owned Small Business (EDWOSB) that provides a variety of managerial and technical services to the federal government.

Bob Mitchell, president of the Bay Area Houston Economic Partnership, said, “BQMI offers a number of areas of expertise which address many of the needs that are vital to the businesses in our region. We welcome BQMI to the organization and look forward to working together.”

BQMI’s core services include Project Management, Safety Leadership, Training Development and Delivery, Information Technology, Cyber Security, Multimedia, and Information Dissemination. The company’s largest customer is NASA, and BQMI employees support NASA at the NASA Safety Center, Glenn Research Center, Johnson Space Center, and Kennedy Space Center.

Founded in 2009, BQMI has its headquarters in Maryland with a satellite office in Ohio. Pura A. Stalnaker is BQMI’s chief executive officer. She graduated with a Bachelor of Science Degree with Honors (Cum Laude) from the University of Houston and has been involved in the government contracting industry for over two decades. She commented, “Through the years, we have worked to surround ourselves with a network of people that have the knowledge, experience and ethics that will combine to push us to be the best possible team for our customers. We’re excited to further expand our services in the Bay Area Houston region.”

D. Ho will represent BQMI within BAHEP. For more information, visit www.BQMI.com or call 832.202.9915.
