New Dimensions Home Healthcare Plus Receives Texas Governor's 2013 Small Business of the Year Award

HOUSTON, TEXAS (October 14, 2013) New Dimensions Home Healthcare Plus, located in Pasadena, Texas, was awarded the Governor's 2013 Small Business Award at the annual Governor's Small Business Forum sponsored by the Texas Governor's Office, the Texas Workforce Commission and many local partners.

"We at New Dimensions are thrilled to receive this award," said Josie Lightfoot, Founder and CEO. "A big thanks goes to Bay Area Houston Economic Partnership for nominating us. It is so nice to be recognized for our work but the biggest thanks goes to the recipients of our work, our patients and clients."

New Dimensions Home Healthcare Plus has been providing quality home healthcare services for almost 15 years. It has experienced continual growth and has increased its presence in the communities of Harris County. As a bi-lingual agency, New Dimensions has been able to provide health services and education to the many individuals in Houston and surrounding communities who speak only Spanish. With over 500 employees, New Dimensions looks forward to celebrating its 15th year of doing work that matters for the better health of thousands of its clients.

About New Dimensions Home Healthcare Plus. New Dimensions Home Healthcare Plus is located at 4949 Fairmont Parkway, Suite 101 in Pasadena, Texas, phone 281-998-9611. A Medicare certified agency, New Dimensions also provides personal care services. These services provide seniors with assistance with the everyday living activities, which enable them to remain living at home for as long as possible. New Dimensions serves in many civic and educational organizations. It also offers educational presentations to communities on various topics beneficial for better health.

About Small Business Forums. Governor's Small Business Forums, sponsored by the Texas governor's office, the Texas Workforce Commission and local partners, are designed to give entrepreneurs and small businesses valuable tools, skills and knowledge needed to thrive in today's fast-paced economy. Featuring a wide range of instructive seminars and expert speakers offering vital information on both public and private resources, the forums offer a great opportunity to network and connect with industry specialists, government officials, service providers and other regional businesses.
